

satelite radio needs to stay on the air and the FCC needs to do better than what thay are doing and find something better to do with there time im not giving my satelite radio up im willing to fight even if i fight in court